

Bill Biasi Biography

Bill Biasi is currently the Mayor of Winters. He was elected to a 4-year term on the Winters City Council in June of 2016, serving as Mayor pro tempore through July 2018.

Bill has a life-long history in the Winters community. Born and raised in Winters, he has lived here for over 50 years. Bill attended Winters schools and is a graduate of Winters High School. He then earned an Associate of Arts degree from Yuba College and a Bachelor of Science degree in Agriculture from California State University, Chico.

Bill has been involved with agriculture all his life, first working on his family's ranch, then for local Winters farmers, and for the last 30 years as an agricultural researcher at the University of California, Davis.

Prior to his election to the City Council, Bill was appointed to the Winters Planning Commission in July 2011 and served on the commission for 5 years, 4 of which he served as Chair. He has also served on the Winters Putah Creek Park Committee since November 2006, as well as the Economic Development Advisory Committee and the Winters Parking Committee.

Bill is an advocate for accessibility issues throughout the City. He also serves on the Disability Issues Administrative Advisory Committee at UC Davis. His additional committee assignments can be found on the City of Winters website.
