PUBLIC COMMENTS:

At this time, any member of the public may address the Commission on matters, which are not listed on this agenda. Citizens should reserve their comments for matter listed on this agenda at the time the item is considered by the Commission. An exception is made for members of the public for whom it would create a hardship to stay until their item is heard. Those individuals may address the item after the public has spoken on issues that are not listed on the agenda. Presentations may be limited to accommodate all speakers within the time available. Public comments may also be continued to later in the meeting should the time allotted for public comment expire.

CONSENT CALENDAR:

All matters listed under the consent calendar are considered routine and non-controversial, require no discussion, and are expected to have unanimous Commission support and may be enacted by the Commission in one motion in the form listed below. There will be no separate discussion of these items. However, before the Commission votes on the motion to adopt, members of the Commission, staff, or the public may request that specific items be removed from the Consent Calendar for separate discussion and action. Items(s) removed will be discussed later in the meeting as time permits.
