EDUCATIONS AND QUALIFICATIONS: (Word count of statement begins after this heading)

My name is Lisa Baker. Born and raised in Northern California; earned my degree down the road at U.C.D. We've called Winters home since 2007. I'm a big believer in volunteering here, which is why I'm running for City Council.

You may have seen me volunteering with the Chamber, or for HAC at the Carnitas festival, or at Winters Friends of the Library events - tree sales, baking Christmas cookies, or at Youth Shakespeare. Maybe we met fundraising for LNU fire victims in Greater Winters.

I also serve on the Winters Planning Commission - learning about General Plan requirements, zoning, economic development has taught me we need to think more comprehensively about our community. I served for 14 years as CEO of Yolo County Housing. My projects for Winters included Blue Mountain Terrace and the proposed Self-Help development. These experiences helped me better understand our residents, and also allowed me to meet you in shared mission.

Winters is a great place to live, raise a family, be a small business person. It has a history of volunteerism. I'm proud, and fortunate, to be part of that. I'm dedicated to bringing my expertise, time, and commitment to help it thrive.
